Saul Eslake - Leading Australian economist to visit Mildura 7 December 2009

Mildura Development Corporation, Rotary Club of Mildura Deakin, and Mildura Young Professionals Network will be holding a networking breakfast on Friday 11 December 2009.

The keynote speaker at this event is Australia's leading economist, Saul Eslake, and he will speak about Australia's recovery from the Global Financial Crisis.

Mr Eslake was the Chief Economist at the Australian & New Zealand Banking Group (ANZ) for the past 14 years, and is now the Program Director (Productivity Growth) for the Grattan Institute.

Prior to his appointment to ANZ he was the Chief Economist (International) for National Mutual Fund Management (now part of the AXA Group).

Mr Eslake makes 150-200 presentations per year to 20,000+ people and regularly appears in the national media to explain his view on financial issues.

This is a rare opportunity to have Australia's leading economist speak in the Mildura region and Mildura Development Corporation strongly encouraged those from the financial and property sectors, or in business planning or management roles to attend.

All tickets for this event have been sold, and 220 people will be attending.
